HOME AND HEART

“Whether buying or selling a home, I look forward to helping you achieve your investment goals. Home and Heart, my favorite combination.”

IT'S NEVER JUST A HOUSE — IT'S A HOME

You want to buy or sell your home... but you also deserve the best price, an uncomplicated process, and an advocate who will help you navigate the many choices along the way.

With me, whether buying or selling, you'll find that I exceed every expectation.

My experience guarantees that every aspect of the process is covered: from marketing, construction, repairs, aesthetics and design, to financing and more. We will be in detailed and constant communication, to keep you relaxed and informed. My extensive local real estate knowledge, and a wealth of experience will reassure you that I am taking care of everything.

Professional and well-connected, I have a hands-on, sleeves rolled-up style that will meet every expected and unforeseen need.

I understand, from lifelong experience, exactly what it is that makes the peninsula the best place to live in all of the Bay Area. I was raised in Menlo Park, and I can't imagine living anywhere else. It's the perfect community to raise a family, and pursue excellence in any personal or business endeavor.

Because I grew up here, I know that the value of your home is much more than just the beauty of a house or landscape; it is the community, recreation, schools, shops and neighbors. But it is also my constant search for the perfect deal and my tireless negotiation on your behalf.
